Local Stakes Going All Out For 'Project Temple'

Another Project Temple Starts In E. Bay Wards

Oakland - Berkeley Stakes are now participating in "Propect Temple." Indications to Stake Leaders are that all wards were planning to participate, with Oakland Third Ward and Oakland Fourth Ward already underway. The Oakland Fourth Ward meets Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. with Curtis R. Bybee as instuctor and Dale Roe as assistant.

Frank Higham of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake High Council, reports a high degree of enthusiasm for the project which aims to prepare 10 to 20 families in each ward to go to the Temple. The families are drawn from the ranks of men over 21 who hold no priesthood or who hold the Aaronic Priestood.

One of the vital features of the program is that the Senior Home Teacher is responsible to work with the family. The Bishop of each ward completes several interviews with each member of the seminar, including an interview for a job assignment.

Seminars run for 12 weeks.

THE FIRST SECTIONS of the central spire for the Oakland Temple are placed by a giant crane—the same crane which removed the old one to make room for the tower. For months the crane, which made possible the work on superstructures of the Temple, has been viewed atop the cement work. In this picture, taken March 16 by Bob McCrea of Ash Studio, the tower is being formed. The tower was completed that same week.

Hayward Stake Is Working On 'Project Temple'

By Marjoria Simard

"Project Temple" is a thrilling and far-reaching program in Hayward Stake. It is a challenge and inspiration to prepare priesthood holders and their wives to enter the Temple. It has been received with greater enthusiasm and support than even Andy Gardner Donald Beck and Willis Sandholt, the committee in charge anticipated. They increased their original order for supplies to 125 workbooks to meet the demand.

Originally conceived in East Jordan Stake in Utah, the program, though not official, is approved by the Church. President Winkel learned of its success in other stakes and appointed the three high councilmen to a "Proect Temple" committee for Hayward Stake, a job they have tackled with enthusiasm and love.

The heart and soul of the program is testimony. It aims to give a man and his wife spiritual experience — to let them come to know their own spiritual strength — and with this strength help them to prepare to enter the Temple — for the blessings offered there.

Concord Stake Gains 374 In Eight Months

By Norma Smead

Membership of Concord Stake has increased by 374 in the eight months since it was formed by division of Walnut Creek Stake, President Ted Eugene Madsen told the quarterly stake conference at the East Bay Interstake Center March 15.

In speaking of the auxiliaries President Madsen likened the Relief Society to the mother in the home and the Primary organization to a training school for reserves, saying "Our army is no stronger than its reserves." He challenged members of the stake to be ready for the Oakland Temple when it is ready for them, as "the Temple is the connecting link between Heaven and earth."

Presiding at the conference was Elder Henry D. Taylor, assistant to the Council of the Twelve. Accompanying him were Sisters Merle W. Hamilton of the Primary General Board and Edith P. Backman of the Relief Society General Board.

Sister Hamilton interviewed four Primary children of the stake to demonstrate how Primary is helping them to know and love the Gospel. She told the children that parents can't make children good by making them happy, but could make them happy by keeping them good.

Sister Bachman appealed to the women to participate in Relief Society for help in better functioning in the home as mothers and wives and creating a happy home atmosphere.

Elder Taylor encouraged boys, girls, and parents to communicate with God in prayer and to keep the channels between Him and them open so that they may make correct decisions in life and have a righteous influnce over their associates.

Music for the conference was furnished by the stake's Primary children, a number from each ward combined into a chorus that sang Primary songs under direction of Sister Clark.

Bp. Simpson PBO Conducts Walnut Creek Meeting

Bishop Robert L. Simpson, Ist Counselor in the Presiding Bishopric of the Church presided at a quarterly conference of Walnut Creek Stake, Saturday and Sunday March 28 and 29.

General sessions of the conference were held Sunday at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. at the East Bay Inter-Stake Center, 4780 Lincoln Avenue, Oakland. They were conducted by Stake President Kenneth D. Jensen, 321 Melody Drive, Walnut Creek.

Bishop Simpson, former president of the New Zealand Mission, was chief supervisor of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's accounting office in southern California until called to the Presiding Bishopric in 1961. He has held important administrative positions in the Church and in business.

Mrs. McGhie has served many years as a teacher and officer in auxiliary organizations of the Church. She is a high school teacer and a member of the famed Salt Lake Tabernacle Choir.

Mrs. Maxfield has been active in auxiliary organization of the Church. She is also a past Lady Lions' president and president of the PTA.

Mrs. McGhie and Mrs. Maxfield addressed special meetings for the Relief Society and Primary leaders on Saturday.

In the stake are many women who work and can't attend the regular meetings. These sisters are warmly invited to come to the party and get acquainted with not only the organization, but their sisters in the Church. This is not just a party for the members who can attend regularly, but for every woman in the stake!

Friday, May 1st is the date of the Spring Concert of the 45 voice Singing Mothers Chorus. This also will be held in the Sunset-Balboa Ward. Guest artists will be Sheila Sorenson Call, mezzo soprano, and Inara Upmanis, a brilliant young pianist. Dancing will follow in the cultural hall.

IF it wern't for "deadines" no publication ever would go to press. So we must have them, too, to permit completion of the mechanical work so necessary to get your paper to your hands.

So PLEASE get your pictures to your ward or stake reporters by the 15th of the month so captions can be written and set and engravings made. News copy should be in their hands by the 20th of every month so it can be written or re-written, delivered, edited, delivered, made up, page proofed, delivered, printed, and mailed (with a few more delivereds in there) to reach YOU while you are still interested. Wouldja! Huh?

Fill Up A Tank Aids Building

A "Fill Up A Tank" and "Build Up A Chapel" project has been launched in the Hayward area to assist the Hayward 3d Ward building fund.

A service station, located at 26091 Mission Boulevard (Mission Boulevard and Harder road), Hayward, is operated with all proceeds going to the building fund.

Full-time operator is Neal Hall, but all other work is by non-salaried men who wish to aid the buiding fund.

Stickers which bear the words "Look Dad, LDS Service, Union 76," are available at the station.

LOST!

News from two wards that should have appeared in the March issue.

This is one of the things that must not happen; so we make it impossible. Then it happens anyway There's no reasonable explanation.

So you folks in El Sobrante who have looked in vain for Sister Evelyn Childers' news reports for TWO months—don't blame her. She has sent it in. And you folks in Alameda who missed the report from Sisters Seavers and Pinckney last month—same thing.

We don't like to omit ward news because (1) it's perishable, (2) it's discouraging to the hard-working reporters, and (3) large groups of our readers may get the idea they are being discriminated against. Ward news is the backbone of our readership—if you don't mind scrambled metaphors. And the folks who send it in are the backbone of our effort.

Hayward Stake Family "Has A Ball"

By Marjorie Simard

Officers of Hayward Stake and their partners, the "Stake Family," gathered in the nearly-completed Hayward 2d -3d ward chapel February 27 for a social evening. Harry Hollingshaus, master of ceremonies, set the informal, friendly pattern for the party, as he introduced a representative from each of the organizations on the program. President F. Winkel welcomed the group and urged members to know each other better an work together in harmony and love.

Quinn Stokers of the Seventies Quorum directed a get-acquainted game which involved everyone present getting signatures from others. Books were given as prizes to those filling their sheets first, as a way of calling attention to the Seventies' book store. Brother Stokes introduced a "mad Russian" who turned out to be quiet Gerald Jenson. Sister Georgene Moffitt played a classical violin number, accompained by Sister Gayle Hollingshaus.

GERALD JENSON, Seventy, from Hayward 2d ward does a hilarious sketch standing on the unfinished stage of the new Hayward 2d-3d ward chapel.

The Primary presented Brothers Tom and Dick Stamm in warmly-received vocal numbers, accompained by guitar and banjo. the Mutual Boards presented different glimpses of a stake president, one as a beatnik, one as a psychiatrist, one as a hill-billy farmer.Barabara Pimentel presented an original reading based on her husband Doug's experiences as a driving instructor. Community singing included a happy birthday song for Willis Sandholtz, who was on the planning committee, along with Reese Merrill and Ray Williams. Refreshments were served by the committee and wives. The benediction was offered by Andy Gardner.

Salt Lake has announced that films will be ready for our use by September. Will we have machines and people ready to use the films? The world-wide scope of the filming activity of the Church will bring something of interest to almost every member of the Church.

If any person interested in the name of Hosken, Hoskin, or Hosking of Cornwall, England, will enquire at the library, we can give him many family group sheets of entries of the name taken from the register of Paul.

Emil McBrayer, finder of the old Bible with the Theus family record, has promised to donate a copy of the records to the library.

Our periodical department should be studied each month by those interested in early California records. Re-printing of records destroyed in the 1906 fire is going forward. The great registers (voting records) on all counties furnish vital statistics. Marriage licenses, passenger lists on trains and ships; probate and will notes, also Slavonic extracts in California and Nevada are available.

Alameda Ward

Lanes Complete Work Mission In Scotland

By Lue Seavers & Violet Pinckney

Relatives and friends are elated over the good news from the Lanes in Scotland. Ralph, Erma, and daughter Joyce are completing plans for their return home to Alameda, after fulfilling their work mission in May, completion of a chapel in Scotland. Their first chapel completed was in England. Their tentative plans are far a where their daughters Dorothy and Pat will join them for a "fun" vacation to include the New York World's Fair. They will purchase a new car and enjoy the sights as they drive home.

Women of the Relief Society signed "get-well" cards to be sent to the sisters on the sick list. Sister Alice Sudmeir was a visitor at Relief Society recently, having moved from the ward. She taught the literary lessons when she lived here. Harold and Sharon Messervy and children also visited the ward. They were transferred to Moffett Field a few months ago, live in Santa Clara, and attend Church in the Masonic Hall there.

Ward Conference was held Sunday, March 15 under the direction of President Summerhayes and Bishop George A. Collins.

The fashion show, "Cherry Blossom Time" was a success. Walter Napoleon was chairman for the affair.

Word was received from Tom Winkel who is now in Anchorage Alaska with he American Red Cross. He is active in the 1st ward there and reports good progress of the Church. He has also become a member of the Alaskan Prospectors and Explorers Club and enjoys the magnificient "out of doors."

A breakfast "treat" of hot chocolate with marshmallows and butter horns was enjoyed by the Seminary students on Friday morning March 6. Special guests were Bishop George and Sister Verla Collins and former Bishop George H. Pinckney.

Our sympathy goes to the James and Emmy Stam family on the death of our good Sister Alfitha Vant' Hoff whose funeral services were held in the ward chapel Monday March 16 under direction of Bishop George A. Collins. She had been a member of the ward for 25 years, had a cheeful countenance, and a lovely singing voice. She is the mother of Emmy Stam who recently moved to Newark. Emmy recently had a serious operation. We have many in the ward who are ill.

BORN: March 8 to Augusto and Bertha De Laetona a son, Augusto Eustaldo, weighing 6 lbs. 10 oz. They are converts of Douglas Gardner who is on a mission in Guatemala City, Central America —by the time this gets to press he will be home from his mission.

Daly City's New Bishopric

By Sandra Eschler

Daly City Ward has a completely new bishopric. This is only the second bishop the ward has had. The first, Bishop Chandler, has been successful in his calling and has been appreciated by everyone.

The new bishop, Russell Lee Kern, was born in St. Louis, Mo. He became interested in the Church while serving in the Navy and was baptized in 1946 while residing in the Claremont Ward of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake. He attended Brigham Young Univer- graduating in 1949 with a degree in psychology. Subsequently he completed two years of graduate work at the University of Utah and Washington University in St. Louis. Bishop Kern returned to California in 1951 when he started working in Livermore. He served as a member of the branch presidency there. Later moves were to Oakland and San Lorenzo. He and his family moved to Daly City in June, 1963, from San Jose where they had lived for seven years.

Bishop Kern is employed in San Francisco as assistant district supervisor for the State Department of Rehabilitation. His family comprises his wife, formerly Fay Buchmiller of Rexburg, Idaho, and six children. Church positions held by Bishop Kern have been elders quorum president in two wards, Sunday School superintendent, and stake missionary. He has also been a teacher in various auxilaries.

His first counselor, Eldon G. Wilkins, was born in Eager, Arizona, and was raised in Phoenix by parents who are members of the Church. He served as a missionary in the Southwest Mission in 1955-6 He married Melba Ann Greene in the Mesa Temple. They have lived in Rapid City, South Dakota, where he served in several church positions, such as superintendent YMMIA, superintendent of Sunday School, first counselor in the branch presidency, second counselor to the district, president of the Black Hills District. He filled a West Central States Mission, was district councilman assigned to the Sioux Indian Branch, and most recently was president of the Rapid City Branch.

They moved to the San Francisco area in October, 1963. Brother Wilkins has been employed since his mission as a store manager for the Tandy Leather Co. and is currently manager of the store in San Francisco.

Second counselor, Vernal Jessee Wallace, was born in Modesto, California. He is a convert and has been a member of the Church for three years. Brother Wallace, his wife Neva, and their children Stephen and Suzanne were baptized and confirmed members of the Church and their son Timothy was given a blessing October 29, 1961.

They were married in the Temple in March, 1932. Brother Wallace has been active as a scoutmaster of Troop 392. He performed duties as secretary for the stake Aaronic Priesthood under 21 and has served as a financial secretary for the Daly City Ward before his calling as second counselor.

Brother Wallace attended Modesto High School and college and is employed as an architectural draftsman for a consulting engineer.

Three LDS Kids Win Science Honors

Three out of seven first-place winners, including the winner of the Grand Prize of a $50 savings bond, in the first community-sponsored Walnut Creek School District Science Fair, were members of Walnut Creek Ward, according to the four-times-a-week Contra Costa Times and Green Sheet.

Courtland "Corky" Hilton, sixth grader at Indian Valley school, took the grand prize with a complicated maze of wires and lights that "converts handwritten words into binary digital language." As the Times reported it: "Words from one to twenty, written on a commutator, pass through a logic section that causes contacts of the relay tree to close when required. The number written flashes on the board." Of course, when it's thus explained, you wonder why you didn't think of it yourself.

Corkey's older brother Lee and an associate took first prize for a series of experiments to determine "which toothpaste is best" by testing their resistance to bacteria and fungi. (Please- No endorsements!)

They are sons of John and Jan Hilton (John is Scoutmaster and a former member of the Walnut Creek Ward bishopric) and grandsons of Patriach and Sister Eugene Hilton. Their uncle Joseph Roy is a member of the Walnut Creek Stake presidency. Two other uncles are mission presidents.

Not in the least overshowed or overawed by the distinguished company was Jackie Tocher, daughter of Barbara and William Tocher, of Buena Vista School, who demonstrated an experiment in conditions that cause mold. She won a first prize open to competitors from kindergarten through third grade.

Party Honors Outgoing Stake Board Members

By Marjorie Simard

Outgoing members of the Hayward Stake MIA Boards were honored at a party given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jacob Hamblin. Those honored were Hanna Angeli, Elaine Hancock, Jack Foster, Jack Jones and Delbert Nelson. Barbequed steak and games were enjoyed by 55 people. New members of the boards are Grace Blazian, Berniele Smith, Roy Key and Al Smiley.

A trophy was presented to Bob Hughes of the senior men's basketball team from Centerville Ward, who won the stake championship. A small gold basketball was given to each of the players, Clyde Berry, Mike Beacheau, Stan Ness, Jim Whitaker, Emerson Green and Tom Green. Their coach was Wayne McKinley.

In the junior division, Irvington Ward, coached by Gary Garison, were stake champs, and came in second in regional playoffs. The team that beat them went all the way to third place in the All-Church tournament, Oakland 3d Ward. The athletic trophies were presented by Don VanNoy, substituting for Jake Hamblin, president of Young Men's Mutual, who was ill.

If we went to Stake Conference to get our batteries charged as President Joel Gold suggested, the power to do so was certainly there. Many forceful, practical, though-provoking ideas were presented. The great opportunity and responsibility of doing genealogical research was discussed by a number of speakers. Donald Beck drew an interesting parallel between it and some tiny ants he watched streaming into the inside of an orange. True, the skin has been bitter and tough, but oh! the sweetness inside. It is also difficult to get stared in genealogy, but once started, the work is sweet and the rewards are great. Young Sister Palmer from Irvington Ward, a student of genealogy, said that once this work was for the old, but now the youth must take it up. It is our resposibility, but it is also fun. You may not find Lincoln or Davey Crockett on your family tree, but you will be doing a form of missionary work among your ancestors.

Male Chorus In Concert, May 11

Culminating a year of re-activity for the Mormon Male Chorus, its original director, Robert Sant, will conduct an informal concert (no admission charge) Monday, May 11 at 8:00 p.m. at the Oakland Fourth ward, 4705 Virginia Street.

Favorite songs, old and new, will be featured. A highlight of the evening will be Frank Parson's reading of the scripture, "Charity Suffereth Long."

Light refreshments will be served and an opportunity given for old friends to greet each other.

All missionaries are invited to bring their investigators to the concert, as the Mormon Male Chorus was orginally called as stake missionaries to preach the Gospel through the medium of vocal music and served in that capacity from 1934 through 1952.

"If we all paid our fast offerings faithfully, Walnut Creek Stake would have $33,600 a year to assist its needy," President Kenneth D. Jensen told a recent stake conference. "Our Welfare budget this year is $12,600. Our per capital fast offerings seem to show that the 4005 members of the stake are very light eaters."

Wes Matheson In Uruguay Report

By Mary D. Westover

Wes Matheson was welcomed by a large crowd at his homecming report March 8. He had been serving in the Uruguayan Mission. One of the interesting side-lights of his report was that as the number of baptisms increased the new members were able to take over more of the organizational duties, freeing the missionaries for proselyting and other activities which developed interest in the Church. As a result the number of new converts is snowballing to previously unbelievable high marks.

Friday the 13th was a lucky day this month because that was when the Relief Society held its annual party, a spaghetti dinner with an enjoyable program and square dancing—anticipated and remembered by the adult members.

Some of us have had rough places to go through that makes us glad we are Mormons and can rely on loving help. Grace Jackson reports that her son Louis had his house and furniture destroyed by fire, but fortunately none of the family was injured. The Martin Harris family had furniture and furnishings burned in the recent ware house fire in Berkeley. Mementoes cannot be replaced — but it is nice to have someone around to take over in these emergencies.

Joyce Swensen was a recent graduate from the University of California. She took her degree in decorative arts.

Kent Hunsaker and Earl Close took the Scouts and the Guide Patrol through the crime detection laboratory of the Oakland Police Department. The boys showed marked interest in this type of civic responsibility.

Thomas Bryson son of Grace Bryson, died recently. He was a member of various veterans' organizations. The funeral was conducted by Elder Louis Johnson of our ward.

Christopher Ehorn, son of Joseph and June Ehorn, was blessed by Elder Ira Call at the fast meeting March 1, as was Troy Zee Bennett, whose father, Dale Bennett pronounced his blessing.

Farewell Honors For Elder Terry Booras

Elder Terry Ned Booras, son of Mrs. Nelda Booras of Berkeley 2d Ward, was honored at a farewell testimonial recently at the ward chapel preparatory to his departure for the Danish Mission.

Terry is a graduate of Vallejo High School and attended Brigham Young University for the last 2½ years. He earner his Eagle Scout rank at Vallejo before he was 14 years old.

At the missionary testimonial meeting at Temple Square at the close of his training period, Terry was called on to give the opening prayer. Several students of BYU members of Berkeley 2d Ward, attended that meeting, among them his older brother Steven, who recently returned from a mission in the Gulf States.

With Elder Booras departure, Berkeley 2d Ward now has 10 full-time missionaries in the field.

Ron McCain Heeds Call To Mission

Elder Ronald J. McCain

By Mel Venturi

Elder Ronald J. McCain received his call to the South East Mexican Mission. Ronald is the son of Walter and Betty McCain of 26294 Underwood Avenue, Hayward, a graduate of Mt. Eden High School and has completed one year at Brigham Young University.

Ron's Farewell was held March 22 in the Hayward 2d Ward chapel, 26101 Gading Road, Hayward. Many friends and relatives of Ron and the McCain family attended. There was a reception immediately following in the Cultural Hall.

He reports to the Mission Home in Salt Lake City April 13, 1964.

On the 15th of March was held first meeting in the new chapel. The new piano and organ are beautiful instruments and with the wonderful acoustics in the building, the singing and music were glorious. Now we must work to finish paying for it so that it can be dedicated.

The next Friday evening was the housewarming dinner in the new chapel, a catered dinner, with entertainment and dancing, $25 a couple, proceeds to go to the building fund.

The MIA is presenting the "Music Festival" on Wednesday evening April 1.

Our Ward went to the Temple this last week-end and those who went were able to do 46 endowments.

There has been a change in the Sunday School superintendency,—John Starkweather has been called to the Stake Sunday School. The new superintendent will be Ernest Furqueron, his first counselor is Norman Venturi. The second counselor has not been named.

The Relief Society birthday party was a "brunch" to commemorate the 122d birthday of the Relief Society. Sister Margaret McClellan gave a talk about her "building Mission" in South America. There were some special numbers by the children of the ward. Sister Estella Fuller, eldest member of the Relief Society in the ward, was honored.

The Frank Wrights are leaving the ward to return to Las Vegas, Nevada.

Coming up April 17, will be a Fashion Show, to be held in the evening. Clothes modeled will be made by the women modeling them. There will also be children clothes models. This will be a dinner and entertainment with free door prizes.

All-Out Effort For Building Fund Drive

By Evelyn Childers

All organizations have set their sights on November to pay off the chapel competely so we can start next building phase to add much needed additional classrooms, recreation hall, kitchen, and Relief Society room. The calendar is overflowing with planned projects to help reach this goal.

First of these building fund projects was a Valentine progressive dinner which started at the chapel and ended at Bishop Ogden's home. Everyone had much fun and added to the building fund.

Our spoon dinner and family movie ("Margie" and Walt Disney's "Beaver Valley") with much good food and good entertainment added $100 to the fund. Every second Friday, 7:00 p.m., bring the family to the chapel to enjoy a fine movie for 50c each or $2.00 a family. The next feature will be "Please Don't Eat The Daisies," a comedy, with Doris Day.

The ward enjoys friendly, keen competition between the Mutual's '-Young Furies" and Oldtimers" in their annual basketball game . . . yes, building fund! This was a banner year for the Young Furies in their first voctory by one point . . and it was a battle to the finish! Anyone who missed this game also missed the "game of the year," that played between halves! In long shirts and jeans the players looked strangely familiar—almost like the Young Women's presidency and teachers . . . and the opposing players in strange costume — were they the Young Men's superintendents & teachers?

Deacons spent a Saturday washing cars, earned $30, and they plan more jobs. The Junior Sunday School children are contributing pennies, nickels, and dimes from home chores; the Cub Scouts are engaged in paper drives (save your stacks of tied newspapers and call Cubmaster Lyle Carson, 223-7068); and all organizations likewise, are putting shoulders to the wheel. Bishop Ogden promised 1964 to be a year of work, work . . . and he meant it! Cooperation is spelled with two letters, "W-E" . . . and with all efforts combined, we'll burn the mortgage in November! Everyone will look back on this year with fond memories of the fun we are having working and striving together toward our goal.

Another Temple group of 17 families went to the Los Angeles Temple, a memorable trip to four of our Ward families (Carsons, Freemans, Kauwes, Llwellyn) who were sealed for time and eternity The Dunlaps, in an earlier trip to the Salt Lake Temple, also were sealed. Anyone seeing the joy on the faces of these families will know it is a goal worth reaching.

Elder Tom Beraz gave an inspiring report to the ward Sacrament meeting on his labors in the Australian Mission.

Relief Society Marks Birthday

By Marjorie Hawkins

The Relief Society held its annual birthday party celebration March 17. A program entitled 'Relief Society Around the World" was presented under the direction of Iva Turner. Many sisters represented different countries of the world and told of their customs and religious beliefs. These women were dressed in the native costumes of the countries they represented.

Special music was furnished by Jeane Ely and Bonnie Croft, daughters of the Bramwells, and a special number written by Sister Amelia Everett and Asa Lindblad was sung by a double trio. As a special recognition a lovely corsage was presented to Sister Mary Irene Marchant who has lived in the ward since it was organized, and has been a member in the area since 1923, always active and willing to serve wherever she was called. She will be leaving the immediate area, but won't be too far away, as she is going to make her home with her daughter Pearl Hatfield in San Mateo.

The deacons' quorum under the direction of Brother Revel presented a spaghetti dinner with all the trimmings and a fine variety show. They thank all those who helped make the afair a big success. f

Wen Rich Scott catches for the senior baseball team this year, he'll be listed as Brother Scott. Rich and Rose are a lovely young couple who have accepted the Gospel into their lives. Rich has played ball with the young men the last two seasons, wedding of interest is that of Weldon Sudweeks and Carmen Mary Nieschultz. She is from Casa Grande, Arizona, but they are both presently attending the College of Southern Utah in Cedar City. They were married in the St. George Temple February 8.

Congratulations go to the Scout leaders in the ward. Under supervision of Robert Stein the Scouts in the ward built a model camp in the Steins' back yard. Among other interesting features was a monkey bridges built across a creek—the only one in the area. The boys' efforts were rewarded by a Class A award from the Scout Council. A special Scout Sunday service was held the following evening at which time several of the boys received advance ments.

Sympathy goes to the family of Henry MacKnight on the loss of their son Robert who died recently

More than 75 guests attended the pot luck dinner held Monday, Feb. 3. These people were all converts of the last two years and their families. The food was delicious and a lovely program was enjoyed. The film strip "What is a Mormon" was shown. Enthusiasm was great and it was agreed it was so enjoyable it should be done soon. Participating with the special guests were the full time stake and youth missionaries and the bishopric.

When what you are asked to do is "too much" think of President David O. McKay who at the age 90 carries a work load that would challenge a man half that age. THEN look your bishop or stake president in the eye and try to say "No."

2d Grandchild Born On Grandmother's Birth Anniversary

By Nell Smith

An event unusual enough to appear in the local paper was the birth of a grandson to Sister June Lunsford. Why Because it is the second grandchild to choose June's birthday for its own!

The M.I.A. music festival is past but the melody lingers on. Thanks are due all who presented such a fine evening of entertainment.

The Relief Society presidency pronounced the recent Rummage sale a success and remind the members that there will be another one in the not-too- distant future. So store those things, don't throw them away. Nell Smith joined the Relief Society organization when she was sustained as secretary.

Congratulations to Brother and Sister Grant Gay on the birth of their second grandson born to their daughter Gloria and her husband. And to Brother and Sister Herbert James Brown whose family was reunited at Esater when their son Marvin returned from his mission in England.

Joyce Johnson has been sustained as attendance secretary for the Young Ladies M.I.A.

Norma Frankel Is Flown Home From Elko Hospital

By Ray Piercy

Sister Norma Jean Frankel was flown from her hospital bed in Elko, Nevada to Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek where she is "patiently" awaiting her recovery from her tragic automobile accident of last December. She welcomes visitors. She said "Broken legs arean't catching so bring the children when you visit." She is out of traction but encased in a full body cast.

She thanks everyone for the notes and cards sent to her in Elko.

A bridal shower was held at the Becks' home for Pat Campbell. She and Steven Parsons of Martinez Ward are to be married in the Los Angeles Temple. Heart shaped cake and bell shaped ice cream were the novel refreshments served. Pat is the first Laured girl of Oakgrove Ward to be married.

RACHEL BECK

Rachel Beck received a superiour rating and 1st place award of a bronze plaque for her speech presentation. "My Place as a Mormon in the America of Today" in the annual stake speech festival. Oakgrove Ward is proud of Rachel She is a junior at Ygnacio Valley High School majoring in music and speech.

The bishopric and building committee appreciate the response of those who are contributing to the building fund. The money is coming in and we hope to start construction this fall.

As an approved building fund project the children of the junior Sunday School have donated a beautiful original water color painting of the Salt Lake Temple at night. This painting by Jack Loycox will be hung in our new chapel. It can now be seen and admired in our bishop's office.

Elder Dany Roark is now actively engaged in the work of the Lord in the Central German Mission. Address: Duesseldorf Oberkassel Duesseldorfersty 1, Germany.

The new full time missionnaries in our midst are Elder Nielsen and Elder Ward. They are desirous of receiving referrals for cottage meetings.
